

Minnesota Renaissance Festival 2020 Auditions Information

Huzzah! The Minnesota Renaissance Festival will be celebrating our 50th season this year. Our entertainment cast includes over 400 harpists, villagers, jugglers, singers, royalty, magicians, fairies, mermaids, guitarists, sword swallows, princesses, fire handlers, dancers, and much, much more. Perhaps you can join us in our revelry as a street character, musician, or street act. Seasoned performers, Festival participants who want to try something new, former Festival patrons, and those new to the Festival are all welcome to audition.

We'd love to see what you'd like to bring to the Festival, although we're looking for a few specifics...

- peasant and merchant class street characters who live and work in the Village
- fairies and fae characters to host crafts and to entertain in Fairywing Forest
- stocks keepers
- hawkers to support gathering patrons for stage acts
- a small crew of entertainers who can work with theme weekend, marketing, and special events
- street acts, musicians, and entertainment that are interested in developing a show

First year entertainers are required to attend the MRF Performing Cast Academy which is held from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm on Saturdays, starting June 13, and running through August 1 (no Academy on July 4) on the site of the Festival in Shakopee. There is also an All Cast event on site on Sunday, August 9.

First year entertainers may not be offered a salaried contract, but will be required to work one 2-hour shift each of the 16 Festival days at the King's or Queen's gate, for which they will receive per shift pay. Gate shifts will be scheduled through either Jennifer Jo Peck, the King's Gate Manager, or Fud Williams, the Artistic & Entertainment Director.

Entertainers who are under 18 years old (minors) must be accompanied on site during Festival days by a legal guardian.

Entertainers who work the Festival are responsible for providing their own costume that meets with approval from the Entertainment Costumer.
